

The Law Library of Congress Welcomes The XVIIIth International Congress of Comparative Law

WEDNESDAY, JULY 28, 2010 | 10:00 AM – 12:00 PM | MULTIMEDIA ROOM

AGENDA

Welcome

Roberta I. Shaffer, The Law Librarian of Congress

Introductions

David Mao, The Deputy Law Librarian of Congress

Global Legal Research Center Directorate

Kersi Shroff, Co-Director

Peter Roudik, Co-Director

Collections, Outreach, and Services Directorate

Mark Strattner, Chief, Collection Services Division

Robert N. Gee, Chief, Public Services Division

Tour of the Law Library Reading Room

Margaret Wood, Legal Reference Librarian, Public Services Division

Tour of the Law Library Stacks

Mark Strattner, Chief, Collection Services Division

Rare Book Exhibit

Meredith Shedd-Driskel, Rare Book Curator, Collection Services Division

The exhibit will feature: early editions of the Magna Carta, Paris Coutumes, and Gratian's Decretum; 1st editions of Pothier, Savigny, Rudolf von Jhering, and Domat (particularly his "Treatise on Civil Law in its Natural Order"); 1st edition of the French Code Civil; the United States Constitution and the Articles of Confederation, and other treasures from the Law Library's collections.

Magna Carta. Title-page of an edition published in London by John Whittaker in 1816.

Light refreshments with staff members from the Office of the Law Librarian, Global Legal Research Center, Global Legal Information Network (GLIN), and Collections, Outreach and Services.