

Prior to joining the faculty of WCL in 2003, Billie Jo was director of the Law Library & Technology Center and Associate Professor of Law at Shepard Broad Law Center, Nova Southeastern University in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., where she held several positions within the law library system from 1987 until 2003. She also teaches and specializes in advanced legal research; cyberlaw; criminal procedure; legal research and writing and law librarianship. She is a member of the ABA, the AALL, the AALS, the Southeast Association of Law Libraries, the Law Librarians' Society of Washington, D.C., the Computer Assisted Legal Instruction, the Consortium of Southeast Law Libraries, the South Florida Association of Law Libraries, and the Southeast Florida Information Network.