

coordinate summer coverage of ongoing CPC cases each summer. Serve on the Clinical Programs' Committee on Serving Clients Having Limited English Proficiency, which is planning for a presentation at the 2006 AALS Section on Clinical Legal Education meeting in May. Taught Legal Ethics spring semesters of 2000, 2001 and 2002 to second-year law students.

o UNIVERSITY OF TENNESSEE
COLLEGE OF LAW
Knoxville, Tennessee

7/92 to 7/99

Associate Professor of Law. Taught Civil and Criminal Advocacy in the College of Law Legal Clinic. Taught seminar classes and supervised third-year law students in the representation of low-income clients in housing, disability, unemployment and criminal (misdemeanor and felony) cases. Also taught Poverty Law Seminar and Processes of Dispute Resolution. Served on a variety of law school committees, including faculty appointments, adjunct appointments, readmissions, technology and law school community.

o ARIZONA STATE UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF LAW
Tempe, Arizona

8/91 to 5/92

Visiting Professor in the Arizona State University Law School Clinic. Taught seminar classes combining lecture and role-playing exercises involving various aspects of client representation and professional responsibility. Supervised third-year law students in the representation of low-income clients in civil and administrative proceedings and in the mediation of civil disputes in a local justice court. Faculty Coach of the 1992 Arizona State University Law School Client Counseling Team: 1992 National Champions of the ABA Client Counseling Competition and 1992 Second-Place Finalist in the ABA International Client Counseling Competition

o STEPTOE & JOHNSON
Washington, D.C. (10/87 - 10/90)
Phoenix, Arizona (10/90 - 7/91)

10/87 - 7/91

Associate in S&J's Litigation and Government Contracts Group

Litigation: General commercial, employment discrimination (Title VII/ADEA), government contracts (bid protests/Contract Disputes Act), environmental, water rights and RICO trial litigation. Appellate litigation involving the Federal Employers' Liability Act before the Ninth Circuit and Montana Supreme Court.

o LAW CLERK TO THE HONORABLE KENNETH F. RIPPLE
United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit
South Bend, Indiana

8/86 - 8/87

- o STEPTOE & JOHNSON Summer 1986
Washington, D.C.

Summer Associate

- o McKENNA, CONNER & CUNEO Summer 1985
Washington, D.C.

Summer Associate

- o BONNER, O'CONNELL & SCHEININGER Summer 1984
Washington, D.C.

Research Assistant. Co-authored medical journal article entitled "DRGs: A Legal-Eye View," GRAND ROUNDS, Volume 2, No. 4, Fall 1984, with partner John T. Brennan, Jr.