Responsibilities as Director of Clinical Programs

Responsible for administration of nationally-recognized Clinical Program, including budget preparation and defense, long-range planning, personnel matters, and liaison with law school, university, bar and national and international clinical education communities. The Clinical Program houses nine in-house clinics, serves approximately 240 students per year, and has 23 full-time faculty (tenured, tenure-track, and practitioners-in-residence) and six full-time staff.

Responsibilities as Director of Disability Rights Law Clinic

Created and direct new clinic in which law students, under faculty supervision, represent clients and their families in a number of disability contexts, including special education, mental retardation commitment hearings (as guardian ad litem), social security disability, Americans with Disabilities Act, and international disability advocacy matters.

Teach weekly seminar and case rounds for clinical students on lawyering skills, values and lawyering process (interviewing, counseling, negotiation, fact investigation, case theory, trial skills, lawyer values, systemic analysis), principally through use of simulation techniques, lecture-discussion, and small-group meetings.

Prior Responsibilities as Associate Dean for Academic Affairs

Coordinated curriculum and academic programs of the law school. Advised faculty and Dean on academic issues related to teaching, scholarship and service and on administrative issues. Responsible for determining faculty teaching responsibilities and coordinated, with registrar, faculty teaching schedules. Responsible for hiring, compensation and supervision of large adjunct faculty. Coordinated distribution of student course evaluations. Supervised administratively the Offices of the Registrar, Admissions, and Supervised Externship Program. Conducted special projects or chaired or served on ad hoc committees (including search committees) for the Dean as requested (including search committees for director of law library and assistant dean of admissions). Responsible for coordinating production and submission of information related to ABA accreditation and AALS membership review processes. Coordinated preparation for and establishment of Order of the Coif chapter (approved 2004).
