

Training Objectives

Investigating Allegations of Staff Sexual Misconduct with Offenders

National Institute of Corrections

American University

Washington College of Law

July 11-16, 2004

Objective 1

- Provide an overview of national and international issues associated with staff sexual misconduct in corrections

Objective 2

- Identify why we are focusing this 36-hour program on investigating allegations of staff sexual misconduct with offenders

Objective 3

- Review state statutes, their content, importance and relevance to investigations

Objective 4

- Identify personnel issues associated with investigations

Objective 5

- Identify tools needed to support credible investigations
 - Operational issues/security
 - Addressing culture and the code of silence
 - Personnel issues
 - Investigative protocols
 - Working with prosecutors and other law enforcement organizations

Objective 6

- Identify strengths and weaknesses of your agency's investigative processes (mapping)

Objective 7

- Learn by doing - practice scenarios

Objective 8

- Develop an action plan to improve investigations in your agency