

AMERICAN UNIVERSITY WASHINGTON COLLEGE OF LAW
CENTER FOR HUMAN RIGHTS AND HUMANITARIAN LAW AND WOMEN & INTERNATIONAL LAW PROGRAM

PRESENTS

TEACHING GENDER AND HUMAN RIGHTS IN THE
NORTHWEST FRONTIER PROVINCE (PAKISTAN)

Wednesday, September 19th
12:00-1:20pm

International Student Lounge, 6th Floor

Join us for an interesting discussion with Professor Anoosh Khan from the University of Peshawar as she addresses the topic of teaching gender and the law in Pakistan's Northwest Frontier Province.

Professor Khan is part of a delegation of two professors from the University of Peshawar in Pakistan who are International Visiting Scholars at WCL for the fall semester. The two professors are visiting WCL as part of a collaborative project with the University of Peshawar (Pakistan) focused on building human rights capacity within their University.

For more information contact wilp@wcl.american.edu or 202-274-4089.

Refreshments will be served!