

Gulf Coast Recovery Week

Lunchtime Discussions

Human Rights, Housing, and Education:
A Panel Exploring New Orleans Three Years After Katrina
Wednesday, November 12
12pm-1:20pm (WCL Room 603)

Student Activists for Katrina/Rita Survivors (SAKS) will host a discussion with Derrick Evans, founder of Turkey Creek Community Initiatives, an organization that serves the Gulf Coast Turkey Creek community that was settled by freed African-Americans in 1866, and Broderick Webb, activist and director of the film "Cut Off," screening at WCL on November 12 at 6pm in Room 603.

The Nuts and Bolts of Doing Human Rights Work on the Gulf Coast
Thursday, November 13
12pm-1:20pm (AU McDowell Formal Lounge)

Derrick Evans, from Turkey Creek Community Initiatives, and Steve Spires, organizer with the AU Alternative Spring Break trip, will discuss ways to get involved with helping out on Gulf Coast recovery projects.

Lunch will be served at both discussions

These discussions are part of Gulf Coast Recovery Week. For more information on events scheduled, please visit: <http://www.wcl.american.edu/humright/center/katrina.cfm>
