

American University Washington College of Law
Center for Human Rights and Humanitarian Law

Presents

“Munching on Human Rights”

What is the Universal Bill of Human Rights? The ABCs of the UDHR

Tuesday, October 7, 2008
12-1:20 PM, Room 602

This year marks the 60th anniversary of the adoption of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR). Professor Rick Wilson, Director of the International Human Rights Law Clinic, will discuss the fundamentals of this landmark document and its guiding principles for the international community.

The Center’s popular “Munching on Human Rights” series is back for another season of engaging and thought-provoking lunchtime lectures hosted by WCL faculty. This series is an introductory program designed particularly for 1Ls who are looking to get a “taste” of international human rights and humanitarian law during their first year of study.

Lectures will be held once a month and pizza will be served so bring your questions and your appetite! All students are welcome.

For more information about this event and others, please visit the Center’s website at <http://www.WCLCenterforHR.org> or call 202-274-4180