

Ideas for Continued Study/Homework:

The following are a variety of follow-up ideas that can be integrated into this lesson plan or which can be used in subsequent class sessions:

- ❖ Screen the video, “A Good Man in Hell” (13 minutes) and discuss
- ❖ Write an essay, examples of topics include:
 - From the Holocaust to Rwanda: Have We Learned Our Lessons?
 - What is the International Community’s Responsibility for Preventing Genocide?
 - Can There Be Reconciliation After Genocide?
- ❖ Assign a research paper. Topics may include:
 - A particular aspect of the Rwandan genocide (such as the use of the media to incite violence)
 - Other genocides of the 20th century (the Holocaust, the Armenian Genocide, the Cambodian Killing Fields)
 - Raphael Lemkin, the creation of the word “genocide” and his one-man crusade for the Genocide Convention
- ❖ Write a letter to victims of the genocide (like Valentina)
- ❖ Write letters to President Bush, UN Secretary Kofi Anan, other government officials about genocide and foreign policy
- ❖ Write an article about genocide for the school paper
- ❖ Write a letter to the editor of the local newspaper
