

CONFERENCE PRESENTERS

THIRD ANNUAL LEGAL RHETORIC SYMPOSIUM

THE ART OF LEGAL

WRITING

American University Washington College of Law
Washington, DC
April 8, 2005

Following our successful "Finding the Law" and "PR, Pedagogy and the Civility Wars" symposia, this year the faculty of the Legal Rhetoric Program will focus on writing. Professor Andrea McArdle, Director of Legal Writing at CUNY School of Law, will present a keynote address on maintaining individuality in legal writing.

CONFIRMED SPEAKERS AND PAPER TITLES

Professor Bill Dorothy, Washington University School of Law
Legal Persuasion: It Is All Greek To Me

Professor Andrea McArdle, CUNY School of Law
The Art of Legal Writing

Professor Jessica E. Price, Marquette University Law School
What Goes Without Saying

Professor Jill Ramsfield, Georgetown University Law Center &
Professor J. Christopher Rideout, Seattle University School of Law
Does Voice Exist?

Professor Alex Ruskell, University of Iowa College of Law
Link Between Legal And Creative Writing

Professor Wayne Schiess, University of Texas School of Law
The Art of Consumer Drafting

April 8, 2005