

Society of International Economic Law

SOCIETY OF INTERNATIONAL ECONOMIC LAW (SIEL) 6th Biennial Conference, July 12-14, 2018

International Economic Law in Unsettling Times

hosted by

American University Washington College of Law
Washington, D.C.

Society of International Economic Law (SIEL) is the world's only global scholarly society in international economic law. SIEL Biennial Conference, one of the largest and most important conferences in the area of international economic law, will be hosted for the first time in the US at AUWCL.

Over 100 speakers will present on compelling topics, such as security and necessity exceptions in international trade, multilateral trading system post-Brexit, digital trade and data governance, multilateral investment court, the right to regulate in international economic law, allocation of risks between foreign investors and host states during economic crises, and regulating finance.

This is a unique opportunity to learn from and network with over 200 professionals, including academics, US and foreign government officials, diplomats, NGOs, practitioners, business community representatives, and students.

Speakers include: Hélène Ruiz-Fabri (Director, Max Planck Institute, Luxembourg), Joel Trachtman (Professor of International Law, The Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy), Sarah Bloom Raskin (Rubenstein Fellow at the Duke University; former United States Deputy Secretary of the Treasury), Teresa Cheng (Secretary for Justice, Government of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region), Pablo Bentes (Managing Director, International Trade and Investment, Steptoe & Johnson), Ricardo Ramirez-Hernandez (Professor, National Autonomous University of Mexico; former Chairman, WTO Appellate Body), Andrew Shoyer (Partner, Sidley Austin LLP), Jennifer Hillman (Professor, Georgetown University School of Law; former Member, WTO Appellate Body).

Further information on this event, including the registration fees, is available at:
www.wcl.american.edu/siel2018