

Training Objectives

Responding to Inmate on Inmate Sexual Violence

National Institute of Corrections

American University

Washington College of Law

March 11-16, 2007

Objective 1

- Understand the Prison Rape Elimination Act and identify its importance to correctional professionals.

Objective 2

- Identify the components of human sexuality and institutional culture and understand their impact on inmate sexual violence.

Objective 3

- Understand the components of a systemic approach to responding to inmate sexual violence.

Objective 4

- Understand legal and investigative implications and strategies to responding to inmate sexual violence.

