

SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

ELIZABETH LEMON, and TACY JORDAN,
individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated

Petitioners,

v.

ROCKEFELLER UNITED SCHOOL DISTRICT, and JACK DONAGHY, in his official capacity as Principal of Rockefeller High School,

Respondents.

No. CV-07241980

February 10, 2008

Case Below:

__ F.3d __ (14th Cir. 2007)
__ F. Supp. 2d __ (D. Yawk 2007)

Petition for writ of certiorari to the United States Court of Appeals for the Fourteenth Circuit is GRANTED.

There are two issues before the court:

Whether, under the Fourth Amendment, the use of trained dogs to smell the bodies of public school students in an effort to locate contraband is a search.

If it is a search, whether, under these facts, such a search is reasonable and, thus, does not require a warrant.

Arguments will be heard on an expedited basis. The Petitioner shall present argument first.
