CLE ACCREDITATION (6 CREDITS, INCLUDING 1.5 ETHICS) WILL BE APPLIED FOR

8:00 – 9:00 Registration and Continental Breakfast

9:00 – 9:30 Opening Remarks and Welcome

Prof. Angela Davis and Dean Claudio Grossman, Washington College of Law

9:30 – 11:00 Charging and Plea Bargaining

The charging and plea bargaining decisions often predetermine the outcome of criminal cases and are therefore the most important decisions that prosecutors make. These decisions are totally discretionary and almost impossible to challenge. This panel will explore the pros and cons of the vast discretion prosecutors exercise when deciding whether to charge or offer a plea bargain in a criminal case.

Speakers:

Prof. Dan Richman, Columbia Law School; The Honorable Pat Jessamy, State's Attorney for Baltimore City; The Honorable Gerald Bruce Lee, U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia; and William Moffitt, Esq., Defense Attorney and former President of the National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers

Moderator: Professor Carol Steiker, Harvard Law School

11:00 – 11:15 Break

11:15 – 12:45 Prosecutorial Misconduct

In recent years, studies by investigative reporters at the Chicago Tribune and the Center for Public Integrity suggest that prosecutorial misconduct is a pervasive problem in the criminal justice system. This panel will discuss the extent of the problem, its ramifications and the effectiveness of existing legal remedies.

Speakers:

Prof. Barry Scheck, Co-Director, The Innocence Project, Cardozo School of Law; Prof. Gerald Uelmen, Santa Clara School of Law, and Exec. Director of the California Commission on the Fair Administration of Justice; The Honorable Nancy Gertner, U.S. District Court for the District of Massachusetts, The Honorable Craig Watkins, District Attorney for Dallas County; and Kelli H. Ferry, Assistant United States Attorney, Eastern District of Virginia

Moderator: Prof. Cynthia Jones, American University Washington College of Law

12:45 – 2:15

Luncheon, Keynote Speaker, Michael Tigar, Research Professor of Law at American University Washington College of Law, Visiting Professor of Law at Duke Law School, and Professeur Invité at the Faculté de droit, Université Paul Cezanne, Aix-en-Provence. With Tribute to *The Honorable Andrew Sonner, former State's Attorney for Montgomery County

2:15 – 3:45

Prosecutorial Ethics – Do the Rules Apply to Prosecutors?

The Supreme Court repeatedly has suggested that prosecutors who engage in misconduct be referred to state disciplinary authorities. However, prosecutors are rarely referred to bar counsel. This panel will discuss whether the current rules and disciplinary process effectively hold prosecutors accountable for misconduct and other ethical violations.

Speakers:

The Honorable Reggie Walton, U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia; Elizabeth Branda, Esq., Executive Attorney, D.C. Board of Professional Responsibility; Prof. Bruce Green, Fordham Law School; Earl Silbert, Partner, DLA Piper, former U.S. Attorney for the District of Columbia and first Watergate prosecutor

Moderator: Prof. Steve Saltzburg, George Washington University Law School

3:45 – 4:00
