

*Dean Claudio Grossman,
The Program on Law & Government, The Office of Special Events and CLE and the Office of Development and Alumni Relations*

Present

The Second Annual WCL Jurist-in-Residence

Judge Kim McLane Wardlaw U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit

October 22 & October 23, 2009

Opportunities to Meet and Hear Judge Wardlaw:

Thursday, October 22

10 a.m. – 11:50 a.m. Room 603

Open Meeting and Q&A with 1L sections (breakfast will be served); open to all in WCL community, RSVP requested for breakfast at secl@wcl.american.edu

3 p.m. -- 4:50 p.m. Room 603

Open Session and Q&A hosted by Latino/a Law Students Association and Women's Law Association; open to all in WCL community (light refreshments will be served)

Friday, October 23

10 a.m. – 11:50 a.m. Room 101

Joint class special session of Federal Courts and Supreme Court Seminar; students in the two classes will have preference for seating and questions; others welcome to attend as space permits

Judge Wardlaw, who will also be judging the final round of the Wechsler Moot Court competition on October 24 at the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, has been on the Ninth Circuit since 1998. She was the first Hispanic woman appointed to a federal appeals court. Before joining the Ninth Circuit she served as a federal district judge in Los Angeles for two-and-a-half years, and was in private practice in Los Angeles for 15 years before going on the bench.

If you have questions about Judge Wardlaw's visit, contact Steve Wermiel at swermiel@wcl.american.edu or 274-4263.