

American University Washington College of Law,
the Emerging Dynamic Global Economies (EDGE) Network, and the German Marshall Fund (GMF)
present

A Roundtable on The Future of the WTO

Thursday, September 23, 2010
4:00 – 6:00 p.m.

American University Washington College of Law
4801 Massachusetts Avenue NW, Washington DC, Room 603

Is the WTO ready to meet the challenges of 21st Century? What impact will the economic crisis have on the WTO? Are reforms needed to the WTO decision making and dispute settlement mechanisms to make the organization more legitimate, accountable and effective? How can greater coherence in international economic policy making between the Bretton Woods institutions and the WTO be facilitated? Will the “success” of the WTO dispute settlement mechanism be maintained in the face of new, complex challenges such as climate change, energy and financial crises? This distinguished panel will address these and other important issues.

Moderator: Professor Padideh Ala'i, American University Washington College of Law

Panelists:

Jennifer A. Hillman, Member, WTO Appellate Body; Senior Transatlantic Fellow, German Marshall Fund

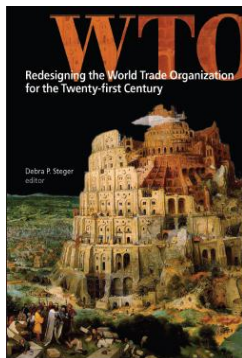

Professor John H. Jackson, University Professor, Georgetown University Law Center; Director, Institute of International Economic Law (IIEL)

Ambassador Julio Lacarte Muró, former Chair and Member, WTO Appellate Body; former Ambassador, Government of Uruguay; former Chair, Uruguay Round Negotiations

Jeffrey J. Schott, Senior Research Fellow, Peterson Institute for International Economics

Professor Debra P. Steger, Associate Professor, University of Ottawa; Director, EDGE Network; Senior Fellow, Centre for International Governance Innovation (CIGI)

Co sponsored by the International Trade and Investment Law Society

Followed by a Book Reception from 6:00 - 7:30 p.m.

Redesigning the WTO for the Twenty-first Century, edited by Debra Steger

Published by Wilfrid Laurier University Press, Centre for International Governance Innovation (CIGI), and the International Development Research Centre (IDRC)

Wilfrid Laurier University Press
www.wlupress.wlu.ca

General Registration – no charge, but registration is required. To register, please go to www.wcl.american.edu/secle/registration. For further information, please contact: Office of Special Events & Continuing Legal Education, 202.274.4075 or secle@wcl.american.edu.