EIGHTH ANNUAL HISPANIC LAW CONFERENCE

The Importance of Doing Business in the Americas: A Legal Perspective on Economic, Political, and Social Issues

An expert panel will address topics of interest to the Hispanic community including trade, human rights, labor law, the environment, intellectual property law, corruption, and security, among others. Attendees will have an opportunity for further discussion.

The Hispanic Law Students' Association (HLSA) provides a forum for the promotion of issues that affect the Hispanic community, nationally and internationally, and which are important to Washington College of Law (WCL) students. HLSA supports this objective by designing and implementing programs to assist students in different aspects of student life, and professional life after graduation. The Program includes networking opportunities, speakers, seminars, and debates on Hispanic issues, and the HSLA Scholarship awarded annually to DC area Hispanic high school students. The Annual Hispanic Law Conference is among the most important HLSA programs, and it is co-sponsored by the Hispanic National Bar Association and the Hispanic Bar Associations of the District of Columbia, Maryland, and Virginia.
