

The Washington College of Law presents

EDUCATION: A LYNCHPIN OF DEVELOPMENT

THE CHALLENGE OF LEAVING NO CHILD BEHIND

Thursday, April 21
12:30 pm – 2:00 pm
Sixth Floor Students Lounge

Panel Presentation and Lunch with

Rosemarie Bellew, Director, Education For All Fast Track Initiative, The World Bank
John Grayzel, Director, Office of Education, Economic Growth, Agriculture and Trade Bureau, U.S. A.I.D.

Robert Prouty, Lead Education Specialist, The World Bank

Sophie Smyth, Visiting Professor of International Finance & Development Law, WCL

A massive international effort is underway to meet the fundamental need of the world's poor for a basic education. Educators, policymakers, economists and lawyers play a vital role in that effort - the obstacles are many but the stakes are high. This colloquium is for those who want to know what is being done and how they, some day, may help

FOR MORE INFORMATION OR TO REGISTER, PLEASE CONTACT THE OFFICE OF SPECIAL EVENTS & CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION AT 202 274-4077 OR SECLE@WCL.AMERICAN.EDU

REGISTER ONLINE AT WWW.WCL.AMERICAN.EDU/SECLE AND CLICK "REGISTRATION"