

2007

American University

FOUNDERS' CELEBRATION Washington College of Law Presents

Opportunities Day Thursday, January 18, 2007

WCL Presents

Kimm Walton, JD

12:00 pm - 1:30 pm

Room 603

The author of "America's Greatest Places to Work with a Law Degree", "Guerrilla Tactics for Getting the Legal Job of Your Dreams," and "What Law School Doesn't Teach You...But You Really Need to Know," Kimm is knowledgeable and entertaining, and has assisted thousands of law students. Limited seating; you must register via email to attend.

Table Talk - 4:00 - 6:00 pm--Dining Room

Pick up literature and ask questions about the many programs in which you will find yourself engaged during your first summer and beyond.

- Career Services
- Upper-Level Courses
- Fellows (Dean's; Gillett-Mussey; Legal Rhetoric)
- Founders Celebration
- Human Rights & Humanitarian Law
- International Dual Degree Programs
- LLMs in International Law; Law & Government
- Marshall-Brennan
- Moot Court
- National Institute of Military Justice
- Public International Law and Policy
- Trial Advocacy
- Women & the Law Program
- Clinic
- Externships
- Financial Aid and Scholarships
- Health Law Project
- Information Justice and Intellectual Property
- JD/MA in International Affairs
- Law Reviews
- Mock Trial Honor Society
- Myers Scholarships
- Public Interest
- Semester and Summer Studies Abroad
- War Crimes

Chat with Faculty 5:00 - 5:20pm; 5:30 - 5:50pm--Rooms to be Assigned

Dual Degree JD/MA
Innocence Project
International Human Rights
Marshall-Brennan Program
Public International Law and Policy Program
Social Justice Seminar

Registration Forms Have Been EMAILED From the Office of Student Affairs