

Second Annual Criminal Law Brief Symposium

Sponsored by

Presented by the Criminal Law Brief, in partnership with the Criminal Law Society, the Society on Law and Government, the Alumni Association, and the Office of Career and Professional Development.

April 6, 2009

9:00 am – 2:40 pm

American University Washington College of Law
4801 Massachusetts Avenue, NW, Room 603, Washington, DC

Agenda

- 9:00am Registration/breakfast
- 9:15 - 10:45am Current State of 4th Amendment Protections for Criminal Defendants
Christopher Kemmitt, Public Defender Service for DC; Roy McLeese, Chief, Appellate Division, U.S. Attorney's Office for D.C.
Moderator: David Aaronson, Professor, Washington College of Law
- 10:45 – 12:45pm Defending the Indefensible: Issues in High-Profile Criminal Defense
A.J. Kramer, Federal Public Defender, Federal Public Defender for The District of Columbia;
Paul DeWolfe, Public Defender, Montgomery County; Peter Krauthamer, Deputy Director, Public Defender Service Washington DC; Angela Davis, Professor, Washington College of Law
- 12:45 – 1:10pm Lunch and Movie Clip
- 1:10pm – 2:40pm Green-lighting the Red Light? Mapping the future of the criminal law of prostitution
Ann Jordan, Professor, Washington College of Law and Global Fund for Women;
Michael Horowitz, Senior Fellow, Hudson Institute Cyndee Clay, Executive Director, Helping Individual Prostitutes Survive (HIPS)
Moderator: Brenda Smith, Professor, Washington College of Law
- 2:40pm Reception

General Registration no charge; CLE- $55.00 for 4.5 credits
To register, please go to www.wcl.american.edu/secle/register
For further information, please contact:
Office of Special Events & Continuing Legal Education,
American University Washington College of Law
Phone: 202.274.4075; Fax: 202.274.4079; or secle@wcl.american.edu