

De Novo: A Child's Journey towards a New Life through the U.S. Immigration System

Play and Panel Discussion
Presented by the Immigrants' Rights Coalition

April 5, 2010

6:00 pm – 9:00 pm

American University Washington College of Law, Room 603
4801 Massachusetts Avenue, Washington, DC

- 5:30 pm Registration
- 6:00 pm Houses on the Moon Theatre Company presents "De Novo...Part 1: Lil' Silent", a play based on the true story of teenage asylum seeker Edgar Chocoy
- 7:00 pm Intermission (Refreshments Served)
- 7:15 pm Panel on Unaccompanied Immigrant Children:
Moderator: Meetal Jain, Practitioner in Residence, American University Washington College of Law
Speakers: Jeffrey Solomon, Artistic Director, Founder, Houses on the Moon Theater Company; Christopher Nugent, Senior Counsel, Holland & Knight; Wendy Young, Executive Director, Kids in Need of Defense (KIND); and Malik Jarno, Former Teenage Asylum Seeker.

Please register by clicking on www.wcl.american.edu/secle/registration

General registration is free but required.

For further information, please contact:

Office of Special Events & Continuing Legal Education,
American University Washington College of Law

Phone: 202.274.4075; Fax: 202.274.4079; or secle@wcl.american.edu