

HEL-3011: Peace, Health and Medical Work 2011

Lecture Plan November 14th – 18th.

Place: Faculty of Health Care Sciences, UiT (MH-building)

(MH = Medicine and Health Disciplines building, adjacent to the University Hospital.)

Rooms:

Monday: MH U.8.124

Tuesday: MH U8. 203

Wednesday: MH U7. 111

Thursday: MH U8. 203

Friday: MH U8. 123

Monday 14 November 2011	Place/room: MH U.8.124
09.00 - 09.15	Opening of the teaching week	Professor Knut Holtedahl, Univ of Tromsø
09.15 – 11.00	Concept and practice of medical peace work: Why health professionals engage in peace work. Mechanisms of medical peace work. What are the risks and limitations?	Dr. Klaus Melf, Norwegian Board of Health Supervision
11. 00 - 11.15	Break
11.15 - 13. 00	Primary prevention of war and violence. How health professionals work for disarmament and arms control. Case study: IPPNW	Dr. Tordis Sørensen Høifødt, University hospital of Northern Norway, and dr. Klaus Melf
13.00 – 14.00	Lunch break
14.00 - 16.00	Non-violent communication as applied peace philosophy.	Unni Sørensen Assistant professor, Univ. of Tromsø
16.00 – 18.00	Group work Students' Presentations	Student groups
Tuesday 15 November	Place/room: MH U8. 203
09.00 - 09.15	Course logistics and day reflection	Unni Sørensen
09.15 - 11.00	Access to essential medicines and Human Rights. The challenges of drug patents and pricing in the global market. Priorities in medicines research. Incl. film "Access to essential medicines"	Kirsten Myhr, MScPharm, MPH, Oslo Univ. Hospital, Ullevål

11.00 - 11.15	Break
11.15 – 13.00	Medical Peace Praxis – Transformative Learning and Conflict Transformation	Unni Sørensen
13.00 -14.00	Lunch break
14.00 -16.00	Medical Assets for Peace and Conflict Work.	Professor Knut Hultedahl
Evening	Social evening
Wednesday 16 November	Place/room: MH U7. 111
09.00 - 09.15	Course logistics and day reflection	Unni Sørensen
09.15 - 11.00	Culture sensitivity. Intercultural communication, dialogue, respect for other cultures and knowledge traditions. Tools for peace and health work abroad and in Norway.	Social anthropologist Rachel Issa Djesa, Univ of Tromsø
11.00 - 11.15	Break
11.15 - 13.00	Development and practical impact of the Istanbul-Protocol on the identification and documentation of the effects of torture.	Prof. dr. Sebnem Korur Fincanci Laureate of Int'l Medical Peace Award 2011
13.00 - 14.00	Lunch break
14.00 -16.00	Workshop	Prof. dr. Sebnem Korur Fincanci
16.00 – chosen time	Group work Students' Presentations	Student groups
Thursday 17 November	Place/room: MH U8. 203
09.00 - 09.15	Course logistics and day reflection	Unni Sørensen
09.15 - 11.00	"Building a local chain of survival in mine-infested areas. Experiences from the work of Tromsø Mine Victim Resource Center." Visit: www.traumacare.no	Odd Edvardsen, Assistant professor Univ. of Tromsø
11.00 - 11.15	Break
11.15.-12.30	Students' presentations	Student groups
12.30-13.30	Lunch break

13.30-16.00	Structural violence, human rights and health: Medical ethics at risk? How discrimination, stigmatization and marginalization harm people, and compromise the health sector.	Professor Anna Luise Kirkengen, Univ. of Tromsø
Friday 18 November	Place/room: MH U8. 123
09:00-09.30.	Day reflection and exam information	Unni Sørensen
09.30 - 11.15	WORKSHOP: Non-violent communication in practice Mediation, conflict transformation and self-empowerment for health professionals. How to speak with honesty and listen empathically. Experiential exercises.	Magnus Lønneberg Gjerde, Red Cross Troms and Unni Sørensen
11:15 - 11.30	Break
11.30 - 12.30	Students' presentations
12.30-13.30	Lunch break	Student groups
13.30 - 15.15	Refugee Health and challenges to the health worker.	Helena Haagensen Refugee midwife in Tromsø County and UNN
15.15 - 16.00	Closure of the teaching week and Evaluation	Knut Høltedahl & Unni Sørensen
Thank you for participating!	Have a nice journey home!

Course website:

http://www2.uit.no/ikbViewer/page/students/studies/courses/course?p_document_id=236147&p_d_i=-28898&p_d_v=236147&p_d_c=&studieprogram=40476&p_d_i=-47400&p_d_v=236147&p_d_c=&ar=2011&semester=H

The Medical Peace Work website: <http://www.medicalpeacework.org/>

Contact course coordinator; unni.a.sorensen@uit.no

Campus map: <http://www2.uit.no/ikbViewer/page/publikum/kart>

(MH-building = Det helsevitenskapelige fakultet)