Responsibilities as Acting Dean, 2020-2021

Served as acting dean during year in which, because of the COVID-19 pandemic, all classes were virtual and almost all employees worked remotely. Main achievements included:

- Presided over law school operation with over 1100 JD students, 75 faculty and budget of approximately $70 Million
- Entering class in fall 2020 of 359 students (297 day/62 evening) with entering median of 3.51 GPA and 160 LSAT with 40% diversity (an 68% women); WCL received over 5,000 applications to the day and evening divisions combined
- Declared 2020-21 to be Year of “WCL for Justice and Equity” and oversaw various anti-racism initiatives, including establishment of student member Dean’s Council on Diversity, Inclusion, Equity, and Justice, implicit bias training for students, faculty, and staff; draft policy on bias reporting; and issuance of various Dean’s Messages regarding Black Lives Matter, Jan. 6

Insurrection, and Anti-Asian American bias, among others

- Re-structured Dean's Advisory Council (DAC); drafted and adopted new bylaws reducing the size of the DAC and re-focusing its goals
- Addressed welcoming remarks to numerous (virtual) gatherings, alumni meetings, conferences, and symposia; made remarks at December and May Commencement ceremonies
- Represented law school at weekly Deans' Council and monthly Presidential Council meetings, as well as in decanal interviews for deans of School of Communications, College of Arts & Sciences, University Librarian, and Executive Director, Anti-Racist Research and Policy Center, among other searches
- Successfully advocated for promotions to associate professor and professor, respectively, as well as re-appointment of all term faculty

Responsibilities as Director of Disability Rights Law Clinic

Created and direct clinic in which law students, under faculty supervision, represent clients and their families in a number of disability contexts, including special education, supported decision-making agreements, Section 504/Americans with Disabilities Act cases, advance mental health directives, and domestic and international disability advocacy projects. The Disability Rights Law Clinic was most recently profiled in Abbott Brant, "Seeing the Whole Person: At 15, Clinic Advances Positive Approach to Disability Law," The Advocate [American University Washington College of Law Alumni Publication], Spring 2021

Teach weekly seminar and case rounds for clinical students on lawyering skills, values and lawyering process (interviewing, counseling, negotiation, fact investigation, case theory, trial skills, lawyer values, systemic analysis), principally through use of simulation techniques, lecture-discussion, and small-group meetings.

Prior Responsibilities as Associate Dean for Experiential Education

Direct responsibility over WCL's clinical program (its program of ten (10) in-house clinical programs) as well as involvement in the wide variety of other experiential programs the law school offers, including, but not limited to, the supervised externship program, impact litigation projects, practicum programs, stand-alone simulation courses (including lawyer bargaining, interviewing and counseling, alternative dispute resolution), and other law school projects or courses in which students receive credit (or serve as dean's fellows) for non-classroom legal work. Identify common themes among these various programs, as well as their specific characteristics, to assist the law school community in articulating and expanding the full range of its experiential education program.

Prior Responsibilities as Director of Clinical Programs

Responsible for administration of nationally-recognized Clinical Program, including budget preparation and defense, long-range planning, personnel matters, and liaison with law school, university, bar and national and international clinical education communities. The Clinical Program houses nine in-house clinics, serves approximately 225 students per year, and has 23 full-time faculty (tenured, tenure-track, professors of the practice of law and practitioners-in-residence) and 5.5 full-time staff.

Prior Responsibilities as Associate Dean for Academic Affairs

Coordinated curriculum and academic programs of the law school. Advised faculty and Dean on academic issues related to teaching, scholarship and service and on administrative issues. Responsible for determining faculty teaching responsibilities and coordinated, with registrar, faculty teaching schedules. Responsible for hiring, compensation and supervision of large adjunct faculty.

Coordinated distribution of student course evaluations. Supervised administratively the Offices of the Registrar, Admissions, and Supervised Externship Program. Conducted special projects or chaired or served on ad hoc committees (including search committees) for the Dean as requested (including search committees for director of law library and assistant dean of admissions). Responsible for coordinating production and submission of information related to ABA accreditation and AALS membership review processes. Coordinated preparation for and establishment of Order of the Coif chapter (approved 2004).

*September 1977-
December 1982* *United States Department of Justice
Civil Rights Division
Special Litigation Section*

Law Clerk, General Attorney, and Trial Attorney

Responsibilities:

Handled a number of cases in federal court concerning the constitutional and statutory rights of persons institutionalized in facilities for people with intellectual disabilities, psycho-social disabilities, and juvenile institutions, prisons and jails.

Participated in and/or supervised four major multi-week trials. Planned and implemented litigation and trial strategy. Engaged in extensive trial and motions practice. Wrote major pre- and post-trial briefs and memoranda. Conducted lengthy and complex settlement negotiations.
