

VOLUME 2, ISSUE 2 • FACULTY NOTES – May 2023

JAMIE ABRAMS was interviewed by KQED news about two lawsuits filed against the Oakland School for the Arts after a #MeToo Movement student walkout. She also presented at several events this year. She presented her paper Reevaluating Regional Law Reform Strategies after Dobbs at Akron Law School's symposium on The Future of Reproductive Rights on October 28, 2022. On November 4, 2022, she presented at the Kentucky Justice Association's Women's Caucus Retreat on An Evolving and Uncertain Medical Liability Landscape after Dobbs. Jamie presented a workshop, Cultivating More Inclusive and Engaging Classrooms with VoiceThread Assignments at American University's Ann Ferren Teaching Conference on January 13, 2023. She published an article, Cultivating More Inclusive Classrooms and Practice-Ready Graduates with Voice and Video Assignments, 60 Fam. Ct. Rev. 613 (2022). Jamie co-authored a book with Daniela Kraiem and Anibal Rosario Lebrón entitled "Women and the Law" (2022 ed.) compiling the most influential gender and the law scholarship from 2020 and 2021.

HILARY ALLEN presented "Should Crypto Assets Be Regulated?" for a webinar entitled "Fintech-Crypto Assets and Consumers: Is it Time to Reign in the Wild Frontier?" As part of the Attorney General Alliance Africa Program/University of Pretoria on February 28, 2023. Hillary also presented on several panels this year. She was a panelist on Policy Perspectives: Road to Policy Consensus on Crypto Assets at the second G20 Finance and Central Bank Deputies Meetings in Bangalore India on February 23, 2023; How Do Frameworks for Governance, Pending Regulation, Legal and Accounting Intersect for Digital Assets? What Are the Lessons from Traditional Finance? at the Governance, Regulation and Accounting for Digital Assets Conference at NYU Stern Business School in New York, NY on January 27, 2023; Confronting the Crypto Challenge: Learning from a Meltdown for the American Economic Liberties Project on January 25, 2023; and Regulating Emerging Technologies: Keeping Pace in a Fast-Evolving World at the ABA Administrative Law Meeting on December 1, 2022. She served on the panel Crypto Assets and Financial Stability, Financial Stability Board's (FSB) Standing Committee on Assessment of Vulnerabilities (SCAV) Meeting in Washington, DC on November 17, 2022. Hillary spoke about the Federal Reserve and Climate Change at the Federal Reserve Conference of Counsel on October 21, 2022. She appeared as a panelist on Crypto Round Table with Industry and Academics: The Future of Institutional Adoption of Crypto Technologies and Digital Assets for the Bank of England/FSB Digital Assets Symposium in London, England on September 29, 2022. Hillary served on a panel called Are the Metaverse and Web 3.0 Real or Hype and What Are the Policy Issues? at the Technology Policy Institute Aspen Form in Aspen, Colorado on August 15, 2022. She was also a panelist on The Future of Crypto Regulation at the Brookings Institute in Washington, DC on July 25, 2022. Hillary presented at the AALS Annual Meeting, Section on Financial Institutions and Consumer Protection in San Diego, CA on January 6, 2023. She presented on DeFi: Shadow Banking 2.0?, London Financial Regulation Seminar hosted by the Center for Commercial Law Studies at Queen Mary University of London on December 12, 2022. She was a presenter for How to Cope with the New Challenges of Fintech Innovation at the Workshop on Financial Technology, Financial Inclusion and Competition Policy: Legal and Economic Approaches, Collegio Carlo Alberto at the University of Turin, Italy on December 1, 2022. Hillary presented Reinventing Operational Risk Regulation at the Fifth Conference on Law and Macroeconomics on October 20, 2022. She also hosted a book talk on Driverless Finance at the Brooklyn Law School in Brooklyn, NY on October 12, 2022. She was a presenter at the Regulatory Managerialism and the Rule of Law Workshop at the Georgetown University Law Center in Washington, DC on September 23, 2022. She is a member of the CFTC Technology Advisory Committee and was invited as a participant at the CFTC Staff Roundtable Discussion on Non-Intermediation on May 25, 2022.

MICHAEL CARROLL presented at the Open Data Workshop at Berkeley School of Law on January 26th, 2023. He published a news article titled Supreme Court Unlikely to 'Break the Internet' over Google, Twitter Cases -- Rather, It Is Approaching with Caution, which summarizes the oral arguments in two pending Supreme Court cases involving social media platforms' legal responsibility for harmful content. He was quoted in an article published in the Washingtonian titled Explain DC to Me Like I'm a Golden Retriever: The Supreme Court Case That Could Break the Internet, which was published on February 23, 2023.

JERRY COMIZIO appeared on faculti.net to discuss the emerging legal and regulatory framework and policy challenges governing digital asset activities. He was quoted in the Washington Post (March 11, 2023) about the recent wave of bank failures titled Silicon Valley Bank Failure Raises Fear of Broader Financial Contagion. Jerry observed that recent bank failures raise questions about whether federal bank regulators "are paying attention" and "why didn't they step in earlier?" Comizio is quoted in an article published in Bloomberg News titled Silvergate Bet Everything on Crypto, Then It All Evaporated (March 9, 2023).

ANGELA J. DAVIS presented a lecture on Prosecutors and Race: Responsibility and Accountability for the Orlando State's Attorney's Office on November 11, 2022. She spoke at the virtual teach-in on the murder of Tyre Nichols on January 30, 2023, at American University Washington College of Law. She was interviewed by faculti.net on Policing the Black Man: Arrest, Prosecution, and Imprisonment.

ROBERT DINERSTEIN presented a lecture virtually on The Right to Legal Capacity and Supported Decision Making at the University of Pretoria, Centre for Human Rights, Advanced Human Rights Course: Disability Rights in an African Context on March 7, 2023. He has been a member of the ABA Working Group on Adult Guardianship Reform: An ABA Impact Dialogue, ABA Section of Civil Rights & Social Justice since December 2022. Bob is a co-chair of a subcommittee on the ad hoc group led by the Elder Affairs Committee of the ABA Section of Civil Rights and Social Justice to examine issues of guardianship reform. He published an article in December 2022 titled Impact of the Dobbs Decision on Prenatal Disability Education and Support in the Journal of Human Exceptionality, Journal of American Academy of Developmental Medicine & Dentistry (AADMD). He presented to the ABA Board of Governors Profession, Public Service and Diversity (PPSD) Committee on Disability and DEI on January 25, 2023. Bob held a presentation on Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act and Anti-Institutionalization before the ADA at the AALS Disability Law Section Panel on the 50th Anniversary of Section 504, AALS Annual Meeting in San Diego, CA, on January 6, 2023. He presented with Caroline Wick on Overview of IDEA, Rehab Act, and the Americans with Disabilities Act at the Children's National Hospital, Leadership Education in Neurodevelopmental Disabilities (LEND) Didactic Program in Silver Spring, MD on November 30, 2022. He presented the closing keynote, Significant Developments in Mental Health Law, at the National Association for Rights Protection and Advocacy (NARPAS) Annual Rights Conference in Newark, NJ on October 29, 2022. Bob was a panelist along with Elliot Milstein and Ann Shalleck on Fifty Years of Clinical Legal Education at American University Washington College of Law: The Evolution of a Movement in Theory, Practice, and People for the 50 and Forward: Celebrating 50 Years of the WCL Clinical Program on October 28, 2022. He gave remarks regarding the effect of the Dobbs decision on people with disabilities on behalf of ABA CDR before the American Bar Association, Law, Society, and the Judiciary Task Force on the Virtual Open Forum on October 27, 2022. He gave a presentation on Lawyers with Disabilities with Brandon Lee Wolff, at the DEI Lunch and Learn Series, Cohen and Wolf, PC on October 26, 2022. Bob gave his opinion in the Bloomberg Law News article titled Modern Laws and Out-of-Court Solutions Can Advance Guardianship as part of Bloomberg Law's multipart investigation of adult guardianship. He was quoted in the article 'Free' after 14 years, Britney Spears May Be Losing Her Way Again, in The Sunday Times of London, regarding Britney Spears' conservatorship, published on February 26, 2023. He was also interviewed regarding Client-Centered Counseling: Reappraisal and Refinement and Supported Decision Making on February 20, 2023. He was a facilitator of Group 13 at Law and Disabilities, Clinical Law Review Writers' Workshop held at NYU School of Law, New York, NY on October 8, 2022.

N. JEREMI DURU was elected to the Sport Lawyers Association Board of Directors where he helps direct the organization's visions and operations. He was a presenter to the Bar Association of Montgomery County: The Intersection of Sports, Race, and Law in the NFL. Jeremi co-authored a book with Tim Davis titled "Understanding Sports Law," published by Carolina Academic Press. He was a presenter at Rutgers Law School on The Future of the Rooney Rule: Lessons Learned on March 2, 2023. Jeremi was quoted in several articles, including an article in Sportico: Flores Case, Rooney Rule Flaws Put Pressure on NFL Hiring Practices (Feb. 8, 2023). He was quoted in Often Interviewed, Never Hired: How Hot-shot Minority NFL Head Coaching Candidates Go Cold, USA Today (Jan. 12, 2023) and This NFL Coordinator Has Been on the Rise for Years. But Why Hasn't He Been Made a Head Coach Yet?, USA Today (Jan. 12, 2023). He was also quoted in Baker at the Barricades: Outgoing Massachusetts Gov. Charlie Baker Takes the Helm at the NCAA Just in Time for the College Athletes' Revolution, The American Prospect (December 22, 2022). He was quoted in an article published in the New York Times titled Colts Owner Defends Hiring Coach with No N.F.L. Experience (Nov. 8, 2022). He was quoted in English Clubs Failing to Meet Ethnic Diversity Targets, Missing Six of Eight Metrics, Sky Sports (Oct. 28, 2022). He was quoted in two articles by Jason Reid, Steelers' Brian Flores, Dolphins' Chris Grier Were Once a Rare Black Power Duo in the NFL, ESPN Andscape (Oct. 21, 2022) and Steve Wilks' Second Chance as an NFL Head Coach Comes with Caveats, ESPN Andscape (Oct. 13, 2022). He was also quoted in an article in the Washington Post, The Failed NFL Diversity "Rule" that Corporate America Loves (Oct. 4, 2022). Additionally, Jeremi was selected as the WCL representative for, and was highlighted in, The American University Change Can't Wait Campaign.

WALTER EFFROSS published Keeping Your Own Counsel: Simple Strategies and Secrets for Success in Law School (Aspen Publishing) on March 9, 2023. He published the article John Osborn's Enduring Words on Law & Learning in the Washington Lawyer in March 2023. The article discusses the practical lessons of the book and movie, "The Paper Chase," and the example set by the author.

ROGER A. FAIRFAX, Jr. published For Grand Juries in the California Law Review Online. He moderated a panel, "Public Safety for Tomorrow: Role of Mental Health Clinicians in Responding to People in Crisis" at the American Bar Association Criminal Justice Section Fall Institute and delivered the firmwide Black History Month lecture at White & Case LLP. He spoke on a panel of local law school deans at the Maryland State Bar Association's 125th Anniversary Thought Leadership Initiative event and addressed the justices and judges of the Maryland Supreme Court and Maryland Appellate Court about the Trends in Legal Education at the 2023 Maryland Judicial Conference. He participated in the Harvard Law School-Yale Law School Conference on Best Practices in Law School Data. Dean Fairfax moderated a national virtual panel of DOJ leaders on careers at the U.S. Department of Justice and spoke on a panel of law school deans at the Harvard Law School reunion weekend. He was featured in a mini-documentary on the 50th anniversary of D.C. home rule and he moderated the keynote fireside chat "Conversation with Local Legends, former Mayor Sharon Pratt and Pulitzer Prize-winning Washington Post columnist Colby King," at the 2023 D.C. Bar Judicial and Bar Conference, the theme of which was "Home Rule in D.C. at 50: Looking Back and Looking Forward." Dean Fairfax was named by Lawyers of Color magazine to the 2023 Power List of the nation's most influential attorneys.

CHRISTINE FARLEY presented a paper titled Design Authenticity at the 2023 Works in Progress in Intellectual Property Conference at Suffolk University Law School on February 22, 2023. Her report titled Report on Unfair Competition Protection under U.S. and Canadian Law was published in Status Report on the Protection against Unfair Competition by the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO) in November 2022. She was quoted in Dwell Magazine's article titled, How E-Commerce Changed the Knockoff Furniture Game. She was also quoted in the Law.com article titled 100% That Firm; These New Jersey Lawyers Just Helped Lizzo Win a Major Legal Victory.

PAUL FIGLEY presented at The Camp Lejeune Justice Act – What Happens Next webinar sponsored by the Federalist Society Litigation Practice Group on March 13, 2023.

ANDREW GUTHRIE FERGUSON published the article Why Digital Policing Is Different in The Ohio State Law Journal, which was revised in February 2023. He has a forthcoming article Digital Rummaging, in the Washington University Law Review.

LLEZLIE GREEN was invited to the Labor Law Group Conference where she participated in a panel entitled "Workers Centers at the Intersection" at the University of San Diego Law School on December 9, 2022. In January 2023, she was elected to the Labor Law Group, an invitation-only organization of law professors dedicated to producing scholarship and teaching materials on labor and employment law. She was an invited participant in the AALS Civil Procedure Section's program for the Annual Meeting where she presented in a session entitled "Courts: At the Margin or the Core" on January 7, 2023. She was also an invited presenter at the Georgetown Law Clinics and the Georgetown University Racial Justice Institute Symposium where she participated in a panel entitled "Racial Justice Lawyering in Court" on March 3, 2023.

CLAUDIO GROSSMAN was elected by the Chilean Congress to be in the Committee of Admissibility in charge of approving or rejecting proposals for a new constitution in Chile that could violate 12 basic principles. He was interviewed for the Latin American and Chilean public on his history and contribution. He was re-appointed as Special Advisor of the Prosecutor of the International Criminal Court in November 2022.

LEWIS GROSSMAN delivered a book talk on his book Choose Your Medicine, Freedom of Therapeutic Choice in America at Harvard Law School on November 11, 2022, as well as at George Washington Law School on November 14, 2022. He was named a member of the Planning Committee for the National Academies Workshop on Advancing Regulatory Science for Defining and Evaluating In-Home Safe Disposal Systems. He moderated and participated in a panel on medication abortion at the conference Health, Equity, and Law after Dobbs, co-hosted by American University and George Washington University on February 25, 2023. Lewis participated on a panel titled "Preempting Pregnancy: Federalism, Medication Abortion and Contraceptive Care" at DePaul Law School's Jaharis Symposium, "Unplanned Obsolescence: Reproductive Health Care Technology's Response to a Changing Legal Landscape," on March 1, 2023. He also served as a commentator on a paper at Seton Hall Law School's Annual Works-in-Progress Retreat on March 13, 2023. Lewis was quoted in a CNN article titled Some Major Pharmacies Are Planning to Dispense Abortion Pills, but Not in Every State. He co-authored an amicus brief for 19 Food and Drug Law Scholars supporting the government in Alliance for Hippocratic Medicine v. FDA, a federal case in the Northern District of Texas challenging the approval of the abortion pill mifepristone.

REBECCA HAMILTON appeared as an expert speaker on a CNN report on Russian war crimes in Ukraine. She published an article in Just Security titled Facebook Beware: The 'Rest of World' Is Hitting Back on the implications of the litigation against Facebook in Kenya in light of the SCOTUS case Gonzalez v Google.

DAVID JAFFE was a featured guest on a podcast for the State Bar of Michigan on Well-Being in the Legal Profession on March 13, 2023.

DANIELA KRAIEM published a book with co-authors Anibal Rosario Lebron and Jamie Abrams titled "Women and the Law" (2022 ed.) in August 2022 which provides timely coverage of the major areas surrounding litigation of women's rights.

JEFFREY LUBBERS was invited to present on "Developments in Administrative Law" to the Office of the General Counsel of the Department of HHS on November 13, 2022. He was invited to present to Foley, Hoag, LLP on "The Federal Rulemaking Process" on December 8, 2022. He presented on "The U.S. Government and Administrative Law in the United States" to a group of visiting law students and lawyers from Hungary at AUWCL on March 9, 2023. He published a post for Notice & Comment, a blog from the Yale Journal on Regulation and ABA Section of Administrative Law & Regulatory Practice, entitled MSPB Administrative Judges Survive a Constitutional Challenge on January 26, 2023. He was an invited panelist on BYU Law's program: "Past Present and Future of FTC Rulemaking" on February 24, 2023. He wrote an article that was published in March entitled Honoring Jeff Rosen, Winner of the Mary C. Lawton Award for Outstanding Government Service, 48 Admin. & Reg. L. News 5 (winter 2023). He was interviewed by Tom Temin on the subject of the Administrative Procedure Act for Temin's show on Federal News Radio on November 17, 2022.

MAYA MANIAN presented her paper A Health Justice Approach to Abortion Rights at the Seventh Annual Health Law Works-In-Progress Retreat at Seton Hall Law School on January 13, 2023. She published a chapter commentary on Means v. United States Conference of Catholic Bishops in Feminist Judgments: Rewritten Health Law Opinions (Seema Mohapatra & Lindsay F. Wiley, editors) (Cambridge University Press 2023). She was an invited speaker at the conference "After Roe and Dobbs: Seeking Reproductive Justice in the Next Fifty Years" at Boston University School of Law and School of Public Health on January 26, 2023. She was also an invited speaker on a webinar titled "The Dobbs Decision—Rewriting History?" at the Pennsylvania Bar Association on January 20, 2023. She organized a conference and moderated a panel entitled "Health, Equity, and Law after Dobbs" hosted by the AUWCL Health Law and Policy Program, in conjunction with the American University Center on Health Risk and Society, the George Washington University School of Law, and the George Washington University Milken Institute School of Public Health. On February 3, 2023, she moderated a panel at the American University Law Review Annual Symposium titled "Reproductive and Disability Justice in the Wake of Dobbs." She was a commenter on a paper for Faculty Speaker Series on February 28, 2023 where she commented on Glenn Cohen's paper, Reproductive Technologies and Embryo Destruction after Dobbs.

BINNY MILLER was awarded the AUWCL Outstanding Service Award. She was also recognized for 35 years of service at American University. She presented her article, Building Fierce Empathy, at the Symposium for the 50th Anniversary of the Drake Law School Clinical program on October 29, 2022. She was on the Planning Committee for the 2023 Applied Legal Storytelling Conference in London, England, where she participated in selecting the presentations for the conference and recruiting academics to the conference. She has a forthcoming article to be published in May 2023 entitled New Clinician Perspectives on Social Justice Lawyering and Clinical Teaching in the American University Journal of Gender, Social Policy and the Law symposium issue, with 9 co-authors. She was a presenter on concurrent session, "How Ten Clinicians Built and Wrote about a Pedagogy of Social Justice Lawyering at the Mid-Atlantic Regional Clinical Conference" at George Washington University Law School on February 4, 2023, with co-presenters Susan Bennett, Citlalli Ochoa, and Jessica Millward.

FERNANDA NICOLA was nominated to serve on the Executive Committee of the American Society of Comparative Law. She was a discussant at the National Endowment for Democracy Event: Reagan Fascell

Fellow Michal Wawrykiewicz's presentation on "Democratic Deconsolidation and Declining Rule of Law in Poland: Resilience, Restitution, and Prevention." She published a chapter with Ann Shalleck entitled The Familial Subject for the Cambridge Companion of Gender and the Law. She presented the paper The Authoritarian Dialogue of the European Court of Justice at a webinar hosted by the University of Exeter School of Law. She also presented in the Law and Governance Twitter conversation by the University of Penn program on "Regulation on Law on Italy, Conditionalities in the EU Budget," on January 25, 2023. She participated in the official movie celebrating the 70th anniversary of the ECJ.

VICKI PHILLIPS presented on the harms of Native mascots at a cross-campus faculty colloquium sponsored by AU's Center for Environment, Community, and Equity. The program, "Indigenous Sovereignties & Ecologies and the Law," highlighted the work of faculty and scholars across AU.

DIEGO RODRIGUEZ-PINZON participated as an expert lecturer in the 2023 United Nations Regional Course in International Law for Africa in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia. He delivered the International Human Rights Law component of the program on February 22 and 23, 2023. He participated in the 2022 Global Forum on Human Rights Education on December 5 and 6, 2022, in Samarkand, Uzbekistan. He presented "The Human Rights Education Ecosystem: the International Experience of a Law School in the Americas" in the panel Human Rights Education in Higher Educational Institutions: Principles, Approaches and Contemporary Challenges.

ANGI PORTER published Africana Legal Studies: A New Theoretical Approach to Law & Protocol, in the Michigan Journal of Race & Law. She gave the keynote speech at the Dorsey & Whitney LLP Black History Month Program, "Black History Month, Africana Legal Studies, & Misconceptions about Enslavement," in February 2023. She was a panelist discussing the killing of Tyre Nichols by Memphis police: "Where Do We Go from Here?: A Pop-Up Virtual 'Teach-In'—The Killing of Tyre Nichols and Police Violence against African Americans," at AUWCL in January, 2023. She was quoted in Jon Collins, Moriarty Comes to Role of Chief Prosecutor as Former Advocate for the Prosecuted, Minnesota Public Radio News, January 18, 2023. Angi also appeared in AUWCL's Black History Month video in late February. She became a member of the Bethel Dukes Branch of the Association for the Study of African American Life and History (ASALH).

ADEEN POSTAR completed an ABA site visit to the Ave Maria School of Law, March 12 to 15, 2023.

JENNY ROBERTS has an article, Defense Lawyering in the Progressive Prosecution Era, forthcoming in 109 Cornell Law Review (summer 2024) She participated in a panel on why conservatives and libertarians should support criminal justice reform despite rising crime rates for the Federal Society at AUWCL. She moderated an incubator session and presented in that session on "Studying Misdemeanor Prosecutions Abroad at the Mid-Atlantic Regional Clinical Conference." She organized and moderated a WCL panel, "So You Want to be a Criminal Defense Lawyer," with four WCL alumni. She is a member of the Plea Bargaining Institute Advisory Board.

IRA ROBBINS published Prisoners and the Law (Thomson/Reuters, 6 vols., 2023) and Habeas Corpus (Thomson/Reuters, 2 vols., 2023). He also published Citizen's Arrest and Race in 20 Ohio St. J. Crim. L. 100 (2023) and Sunshine Laws behind the Clouds: Limited Transparency in a Time of National Emergency, 56 U.C. Davis L. Rev. 1 (2022).

EZRA ROSSER published the Introduction to Wealth Disparities and Civil Rights Introduction in the ABA Human Rights Magazine. He organized and presented at the Poverty Law Conference hosted by Berkeley Law in March 2023. He presented his book, A Nation Within, at faculty workshops at Florida State University College of Law and University of New Mexico Law. He presented "Affirmatively Resisting" at a faculty workshop at the William & Mary Law School. He was interviewed by ABC News on the Cherokee right to a congressional delegate and for The Washington Post on landlord obligations to maintain safety. He wrote an amicus brief, Arizona v. Navajo Nation, No. 21-1484, and wrote the A Nation Within Symposium's Introduction, Law and Political Economy Blog, December 6, 2022.

SUSANA SACOUTO led a working session on "Lessons from the Sepur Zarco Case: A Model of Holistic Support for Documenting CRSV," as part of the Global Network of Women Peacebuilders (GNWP) program on Activities Supporting Ukrainian Women Peacebuilders. She moderated a WCL International Suite Talk on "The Practice of International Courts: Cross-fertilization, Cooperation and Competition among International Courts and Tribunals" with Chiara Giorgetti and Rebecca Hamilton. She moderated a panel on "Assessing International Justice: Ukraine and Beyond," hosted by the War Crimes Research Office and AU International Law Review. She served as a panelist on the topic of prosecuting the crime of aggression at the 2022 Annual International and Comparative Law Symposium on "Aggressive War – State vs. Individual Responsibility," hosted by the Maryland Journal of International Law and UM Carey's International and Comparative Law Program. She served as a panelist on "Theoretical Reflections on Sexual Violence:

Definition and Consent" at the IV Plenary Meeting of the Specialized Gender Network (REG) of the Ibero-American Association of Public Prosecutors in Buenos Aires, Argentina. She secured a grant from the UN Women for the War Crimes Research Office and Academy of Human Rights and Humanitarian Law to host a two-day workshop on Strategic Litigation Regarding Gender-Based Violence in Latin America, held at AUWCL on March 23-24, 2023. She was interviewed by AUWCL's International Comparative & Legal Studies Program about an amicus curiae brief submission she co-authored in the ICC case, Prosecutor v. Ongwen.

ANNE SCHAUFLE published Insurgent Citizenship: How Consumer Complaints on Immigration Scams Inform Justice and Prevention Efforts, 37 Geo. Immigr. L.J. (2023) (forthcoming) (co-authored with Dr. Juan Pedroza, UC Santa Cruz Sociology Department). She testified as an expert witness on notario fraud for the Federal Public Defender Service, Central District of California, Los Angeles, California on January 26, 2023.

ANN SHALLECK published a book chapter, The Familial Subject, co-authored with Professor Fernanda Nicola, in The Cambridge Companion to Gender and the Law. She participated in In Defense of Medication Abortion: A Conversation with Professors Ann Shalleck and Lewis Grossman. As Faculty Director of the Women and the Law Program, she organized International Trends in Human Trafficking, co-sponsored by the International Law Student Association; AU Women's Network: Women in Leadership Breakfast, "Championing Women's Health Equity," co-sponsored with the WCL Health Law Program; and "Proving Ground: The Untold Story of the Six Women Who Programmed the World's First Modern Computer," a book talk with author Kathy Kleiman co-sponsored by PIJIP.

ANITA SINHA delivered a keynote for European human rights activists visiting through the U.S. Department of State and Institute of International Education exchange program. She was elected as Co-Chair of the Executive Committee of the AALS Section on Clinical Legal Education.

BILL SNAPE published a book chapter, "International Biodiversity Litigation in the United States: Strong Conservation Laws but Challenges with Enforcement," in Biodiversity Litigation (2022). He also testified before the Internal Revenue Service based on comprehensive research done by AUWCL students on this topic from 2018-2021.

DAVID SNYDER presented "Contracting for Process" at IRDA Paris (Institut de recherche en droit des affaires de Paris [Institute for Research on Business Law, Paris] at the University of Paris II (Panthéon-Assas).

DAVID SPRATT published Contracts: A Modern Coursebook, Third Edition (Aspen Publishing) in February 2023. He published Give "Them" What "They" Want and Get with the Program: The Importance of Using Inclusive Pronouns, 50 Va. B. Assn. News J. 12-13 (spring 2023).

BRANDON WEISS published Corporate Acquisition of Rental Housing and the Case for National Rent Stabilization, 101 Wash. U. Law. Rev. (forthcoming 2023). He presented "Professors' Corner – Opportunity Zones: A Reassessment," at the ABA Real Property, Trust, and Estate Law Section. He was a plenary panelist on "A Focus on Student Retention: Creating Generative Communities that Nurture Sense of Belonging," at the 34th Annual Ann Ferren Conference at American University. He was co-organizer as vice chair of the AALS Real Estate Transactions Section of COVID-19's Continuing Effect on the Commercial and Residential Real Estate Market, at the AALS Annual Meeting in San Diego, CA.

STEVE WERMIEL published Inequitable and Inadequate School Funding, 48 ABA Human Rights Magazine (January 2023). He served as moderator/participant for the American University Law Review Symposium on the current Supreme Court. The panel focused on First Amendment issues last term and this term. He was interviewed by Hearst television on Supreme Court student loan cases; Bloomberg News on the role of Chief Justice John Roberts, and appeared on a New Jersey program about the legacy of Justice William Brennan.

Message sent by:
American University Washington College of Law
4300 Nebraska Ave NW, Washington, DC 20016
(202) 274-4000