

INVESTMENT AND COMMERCIAL ARBITRATION: AN INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATOR'S POINT OF VIEW

The Washington College of Law was founded by women in 1896, at a time when women were generally excluded from the legal profession. These pioneering founders recognized the important role women could play in the legal field. This event is organized to honor their legacy. A panel of experts composed of Tina Cicchetti, Fasken Matineau DuMoulin; Susan Franck, WCL; Claudia Frutos-Peterson, Curtis, Mallet-Prevost, Colt & Mosle; Margrete Stevens, King & Spalding; and Janet Whittaker, Clifford Chance, will comment on Professor Stern's remarks.
