

Sabrina Morello is Senior Counsel with the Office of Inspector General (OIG) for the U.S. Department of Health & Human Services. She is stationed in Washington, D.C. at OIG Headquarters. In her role with the Office of Counsel to the Inspector General, she generally provides legal analysis and advice to OIG components regarding audits and evaluations, particularly focusing on issues related to Medicare Parts A and B and the Inspector General Act. She has been with OIG since August 2015.

Ms. Morello received a Juris Doctor from American University, Washington College of Law, and a Bachelor of Arts in Classics and Psychology from Bucknell University. She is a member of the Virginia State Bar.