

Join the Center for Human Rights & Humanitarian Law, the European Law Association, and the Program on International Organizations, Law and Diplomacy for a panel discussion on

Human Rights Litigation before the European Court of Justice and the European Court of Human Rights

Thursday, March 22 at 12:00 PM

American University Washington College of Law, Yuma Building Y115
4300 Nebraska Ave. NW, Washington, D.C. 20016

Expert panelists will discuss human rights litigation before the Court of Justice of the European Union and the European Court of Human Rights. The Court of Justice of the European Union (CJEU) and the European Court of Human Rights (ECtHR) have played increasingly important roles in the EU since their creation in the 1950s. Decision-making in these courts do not occur in a vacuum; rather, it is informed by a wide variety of actors and circumstances in Luxembourg and in Strasbourg, in the Member States and even in the overseas territories where EU citizens have tangible rights. Panelists will share their experiences and provide insights on various litigation and advocacy strategies before the Courts. Panelists include:

- Dimitry Kochenov, Professor of Law, University of Groningen
- Lena Petrovic, Hubert H. Humphrey Fellow, American University Washington College of Law
- Fernanda Nicola, Professor of Law, American University Washington College of Law
- Chair: Macarena Saez, Director of Center for Human Rights & Humanitarian Law

Please RSVP to <https://www.wcl.american.edu/secle/registration>