

THE GEOPOLITICS OF LAW IN LATIN AMERICA: TRANSNATIONAL LITIGATION AND INVESTMENT ARBITRATION

Presented by the Program on International Organizations, Law and Diplomacy

Wednesday, April 4, 2018

10:00 - 11:50 am

American University Washington College of Law
Room N104, Warren Building

Large money judgments may depend on qualitative assessments of foreign legal systems as a whole. Both transnational litigation and investor-state arbitration require adjudicators to decide on the fitness of foreign law at certain points. This presentation will critically discuss the evidence available for assessing Latin American legal systems in those contexts.

Lecturer: Jorge Esquirol, Professor of Law, Florida International University Law
