

Film Screening: The Prosecutors

MARCH 20, 2019, 12:00 PM
AMERICAN UNIVERSITY WASHINGTON COLLEGE OF LAW
4300 NEBRASKA AVE, NW, WARREN NT07

The War Crimes Research Office (WCRO) and Ferencz International Justice Initiative of the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum will host a screening of The Prosecutors on March 20, 2019 at 12:00 PM at American University Washington College of Law. The film follows the lives of three prosecutors in Colombia, the Democratic Republic of the Congo, and Bosnia and Herzegovina who have dedicated their lives to prosecuting perpetrators of sexual violence in conflict.

The event will feature introductions by WCRO Director Susana SáCouto and the film's director, Leslie Thomas, followed by a screening of the film. Kelley Currie, Head of the Office of Global Criminal Justice at the U.S. Department of State, will offer reflections following the film. Leslie Thomas, Professor SáCouto, and Ferencz Initiative Director Anna Cave will then take questions from the audience.

This event is free and open to the public, but registration is required. Lunch will be served. Please RSVP at <https://www.wcl.american.edu/secle/registration>.

The Prosecutors is produced by ART WORKS Projects