

The ICC Young Arbitrators Forum (ICC YAF) and WCL International Trade & Investment Law Society (ITILS) Present:

Careers in International Arbitration: The Role of International Courts, Institutions, and Tribunals

Wednesday, October 11, 2017

4:00 - 6:00 pm

American University Washington College of Law

4300 Nebraska Ave NW

Washington, DC 20016

Warren Building, NT01 - Ceremonial Classroom

This panel discussion of current and former law clerks/counsel will introduce opportunities at international courts, institutions, and tribunals and explain how they can provide relevant, unique, and valuable international arbitration experience. The panel discussion will be preceded by a presentation on ICC Court developments and be followed by a networking reception.

Panelists include:

Pedro Arcoverde - Deputy Counsel, International Court of Arbitration ®, SICANA, Inc.

Sadie Blanchard - Research Scholar in Law and Private Law Fellow, Yale Law School

Catherine Gibson - Associate, Covington & Burling LLP

Charles Rosenberg - Associate, White & Case LLP

Gretta Walters - Associate, Chaffetz Lindsey LLP

For more information, please visit: <https://iccwbo.org/event/icc-yaf-event-washington-dc/>

This event is free and open to the public. Please register online at:

<https://www.wcl.american.edu/secle/registration>.