IP/GENDER: THE UNMAPPED CONNECTIONS

FRIDAY, APRIL 2, 2004
3:00 PM-5:00 PM
ROOM 524

A noted panel of intellectual property scholars will discuss the intersection of gender and intellectual property issues.

Topics touched on will include: the impact on intellectual property law and policy of gender-related imbalances in wealth, cultural access, political power, and social control; creative production and gender; the effects of stereotyping and the feminization and masculinization of participant roles in intellectual property; the gendered development of IP doctrine and feminist jurisprudential insights about intellectual property law.
